Transactions
 Report any purchase, sale, or exchange by you, your spouse, or dependent child of stocks, bonds, commodity futures, and other securities if the amount of the transaction exceeded $1,000. You do not need to report: (1) mutual funds and other excepted investment funds; (2) certificates of deposit, savings or checking accounts, and money market accounts; (3) U.S. Treasury bills, notes, and bonds; (4) Thrift Savings Plan accounts; (5) real property; and (6) transactions that are solely by and between you, your spouse, or dependent child.

Definitions
 An "excepted investment fund" is an investment fund that is: (1) independently managed, (2) "widely held," and (3) either "publicly traded or available" or "widely diversified."

For purposes of the excepted investment fund definition, an investment fund is:

- "independently managed" if you lack the ability to control the fund;
- "widely held" if the fund has at least 100 natural persons as direct or indirect investors;
- "publicly traded or available" if it is listed on a national exchange (NYSE or NASDAQ) or a regional exchange in the United States; and
- "widely diversified" if it: (1) holds no more than 5% of the value of its portfolio in the securities of any issuer (other than the United States Government) and (2) holds no more than 20% of the value of its portfolio in any particular economic or geographic sector.

Deadlines
 You must file your report within 30 days of when you receive notification of a transaction but not later than 45 days after the transaction. These deadlines do not apply to any voluntary additional disclosures you make.
